Murray D. Reimer
April 8, 1955-April 23, 2025

Murray D. Reimer, 70, of Hutchinson, died April 23, 2025, at Hutchinson Regional Medical Center after a long health battle. He was born April 8, 1955, in Fowler to Arnold E. Reimer and Helen (Loewen) Reimer.

Murray attended Pleasant Hill, which was a small country school from first grade until it closed in 1966. Then he and his siblings rode the bus to Meade Public School. He enjoyed learning how to play the trombone for band. Murray helped around the farm. He worked countless hours in the fields and also with the dairy.

He attended Tabor College in 1974. Then on to Liberal Vo-Tech. He graduated from Friends University in 2000 with a Bachelor of Science. He worked for Maguirk Chevrolet in Cimmaron. Then after a move to Hutchinson, he worked for Straub International, Prairie Land Partners, and AGCO Corporation as an agricultural mechanic for 40 years.

In 1979, he married Ama Boese. They shared 46 years of marriage before his death. Murray was an active member of the First Mennonite Church, Hutchinson. He participated in the church choir and was a sound tech for Sunday morning services. Murray especially enjoyed the potluck dinners at church.

Murray followed motor sports avidly whether he went to the drag races or watched NASCAR on television. He could tell you everything about the sport. Murray enjoyed visiting with friends and family albeit in person or on the phone.

Murray is survived by: beloved wife, Ama of Hutchinson; sons, Drew (Rebekah) Reimer of West Virginia, and Ethan Reimer of Hutchinson; granddaughter, Josephine Reimer of West Virginia; sister LaVera (Tim) Isaac of Oklahoma; brother Leon (Ethel) Reimer of Meade; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, and a niece.
