January 14-20, 2026

Outrage (a prayer written by Steve Garnaas-Holmes)

*O Broken-Hearted One,
we cry out to you.*

*Our anguish overflows all speech;
our outrage escapes our words.*

*Yet you hear, for it is your own cry;
the pain and the sorrow are yours.*

*The powerful worship idols
of violence and lies.*

*They defy you in their golden palaces
and murder you in the streets before us.*

*We long for the justice you promise,
we yearn for the peace you offer us.*

*Enfold us in your righteousness,
so we are not swallowed up in their evil.*

*Do not let our outrage become mere rage,
do not let our resolve become resentment.*

*Still our hearts with your steady peace,
steel our nerve with your serene wisdom.*

*As we breathe the fumes of cruelty,
may our hearts be clear and merciful.*

*As shadows engulf us,
may we still be your light.*

*In a time of despair,
may we be alive with hope.*

*May we resist what is hurtful
and disrupt it with gentleness.*

O Slain and Risen One,

*fill us with your blessing,
send us with your love,
and accompany us with your courage.*

*Deep Blessings,
Pastor Steve*
