

THIS WEEK @ FMC

January 21-February 3, 2026

Our journey through the Gospel of John includes the story of Nicodemus coming for a late night conversation with Jesus (John 3:1-21). Because of our observation of Anabaptist World Fellowship Sunday, we will not be delving deeply into this story on Sunday (but if you come to the Confessional Bible Study tonight, you will have that opportunity!). I invite you to spend time with the Prayer of Confession and Assurance below (written by Rev. Teri Peterson) as one way of considering how this story invites and challenges us, especially in the violent and painful realities we are being presented with in our country. Our call is to invite all people into new life with God, and yet we so often write the 'other' off as unlovable and even disposable. What is the 'darkness' keeping us from noticing where God's light is shining – not just for us and our 'tribe' but the whole world? May the Spirit blow us where the Spirit wants to lead us! --- Pastor Tonya

Prayer of Confession

You come with love, O God, pouring yourself out for the world.
We confess that we are often quicker to condemn than to love, and we are prone to restricting your love to those who think like us.
Your abundant life shines with light,
drawing all people into new life with you.
We confess that we are addicted to the ways of this world, and we often choose to stay in them rather than the ways of your kingdom.
Your Word made flesh reveals your presence among us.
We confess that we see, but as in a mirror dimly, restricted by our worldview, bound by what we think we know,
and unwilling to look clearly at the hard parts we'd rather ignore.
Forgive us, loving God,
and send your Spirit among us to re-make us,
a new creation born of the fullness of your love.
We ask in the name of the One who shines in the darkness,
Jesus the Christ. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Friends, the Spirit moves like the wind — coming and going to bring new life wherever she pleases. Trust that God's love is carried on that wind for you today, and walk in newness of life. Thanks be to God. Amen.

(prayers from a worship liturgy written by Rev. Teri Peterson)

SUNDAY, JANUARY 25, 2026 – ANABAPTIST WORLD FELLOWSHIP SUNDAY: SOLIDARITY

Celebrating Communion and receiving a One Lunch Offering to support the ministries of Mennonite World Conference. The invitation is to donate what you would spend on purchasing “one lunch.”

Our MWC tagline lists “living out unity” as a core part of our identity. We exercise solidarity with our fellow Anabaptists across denominational lines locally, around the world, with the body of Christ more broadly, and with partners in building peace and pursuing justice.

Solidarity is another word for the connection we exercise within the body of Christ. Unity expressed through actions reverberates beyond our efforts: we raise our voices and our finances in support; we stand together and lift each other up; we pay attention so that no one is left behind.

Summer staff applications for the 2026 Summer Camps are open. The application and further information can be found here or at the link at the end of this announcement. Summer staff need to be 18 or older, preferably with one year of college, work or volunteering. Contact Olivia at 316-293-7313 or olivia.bartel@campmennoscah.org with questions. <https://www.campmennoscah.org/vnews/display.v/SEC/Programs%7CSummer%20Youth%20Camps%3E%3ESummer%20Youth%20Camp%20Staff%20Application>

Thank you to all who choose to invest in Camp Mennoscah during 2025! With nearly all gifts counted, we are pleased to report that contributions in 2025 exceeded 2024 by over 8.5%! Combined with lower expenses, we ended the year with an operating surplus of over $63,000 which can be applied to the repairs needed at the retreat center. While this is short of the overall goal, it is a positive step forward made possible by your support, and for that, all of us are endlessly grateful. It is astonishing to think that offering and then matching the $10,000 challenge grants already undertaken by many of our partner congregations would complete this campaign in its entirety!. To offer your pledge, or for additional information, text "CAMP" to 620.755.2583.
