

THIS WEEK @ FMC - May 20-June 2, 2026

⁴ Be glad in the Lord always! Again I say, be glad!

⁵ Let your gentleness show in your treatment of all people. The Lord is near.

⁶ Don't be anxious about anything; rather, bring up all of your requests to God in your prayers and petitions, along with giving thanks.

⁷ Then the peace of God that exceeds all understanding will keep your hearts and minds safe in Christ Jesus.

⁸ From now on, brothers and sisters, if anything is excellent and if anything is admirable, focus your thoughts on these things: all that is true, all that is holy, all that is just, all that is pure, all that is lovely, and all that is worthy of praise.

⁹ Practice these things: whatever you learned, received, heard, or saw in us. The God of peace will be with you.

In his letter to the church in Philippi, Paul has had a lot to say about the good news story of Jesus (the source of our 'gladness') and how it shapes their lives – the posture, attitude and mindset they're invited to adopt as they keep Jesus as the center of their daily lives and activities, no matter the circumstances. And in these verses signaling the end of his letter he provides both further encouragement and counsel about living a Jesus-centered life. Where to focus their thoughts, what to do with their anxiety and worry, how to treat each another, and how to envision their life with God in the future.

The Listening-Prayer-Conversation groups spent time listening to this passage during our gatherings this past month. During those conversations an invitation emerged for me to try practicing a prayer with these elements:

1. Gladness (or rejoicing) in God's close presence paired with a desire to let gentleness be what I bring to all people.
2. Acknowledgement of anxiety and worry paired with bringing all my requests and petitions to God, along with giving thanks.
3. Resting in the assurance of Paul's encouragement – the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will keep my heart and mind safe in Christ Jesus.

I invite you to spend time with this passage as well, hearing it as Paul's encouragement to the church in Philippi, and asking what invitation God might be bringing to you – in this time and this place – through these words.

SUNDAY, MAY 31, 2026 – FAITH JOURNEY SHARING

Scriptures to be chosen by those sharing their stories

The early church in Acts was known as “followers of the Way”—a reminder that following Jesus is a journey of movement, growth, and discovery. All of us are “on the way” in our faith each day. This summer at FMC, as part of our summer worship, we’re inviting people to share brief stories of how they’ve experienced God/Jesus/Spirit—on that journey, as witness to God’s presence and as an encouragement to others also ‘on the way.’ This isn’t about where you’ve arrived, but what the journey has been like.

ALL MY DAYS – SUMMER 2026 WORSHIP SERIES ON PRAYER

Prayer can be an abstract idea for some of us. When, where, what, and how do we pray? And why would we do it? Cultures and religions throughout time and space have turned to tangible objects to help them answer these questions. In this worship series, we will explore the ancient and cross-traditional use of prayer beads as a way to connect with the Holy and with each other for “all our days.” (Marcia McFee – Worship Design Studio)

In the eight Sundays that make up this series, we’ll combine the tangibility of using prayer beads (which will be provided for you to use throughout the series) with a study about the various types of prayer the Prayer of Jesus (Lord’s Prayer) invites us into. We’ll begin with focusing on the “Be Still and Know” prayer from the psalmist before turning to the Prayer of Jesus.

June 14 – Be Still and Know
June 28 – Presence “Our Abba, Who Art in Heaven”
July 5 – Praise “Hallowed Be Thy Name”
July 12 – Purpose “Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.”
July 26 – Petition “Give us this day our daily bread.”
August 2 – Pardon “Forgive us our sins/trespasses as we forgive those who sin/trespass against us.”
August 9 – Protection “Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.”
August 16 – Persistence “For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. AMEN”

CAMP MENNOSCAH announcements

Volunteers needed – cook, camp nurse. Contact Camp Mennoscah at olivia.bartel@campmennoscah.org or 620-297-3290 to volunteer.

Items needed for the Retreat Center are shower curtains (opaque white preferred), queen mattress pads, queen comforters and queen fitted & flat sheets. Three queen beds were added for a total of 4 rooms with queen beds and camp does not have enough queen-sized bedding. Camp Mennoscah has also relied on a summer staffer with a good camera (digital SLR with interchangeable lenses) and camp needs its own camera for both summer and year-round use. A simple "point and shoot" camera no longer fits camp's needs. Donations can be either funds or the items themselves.

Volunteer needs include poison ivy control, pest control (bugs), and removal of some dead trees. Please contact Camp Mennoscah at olivia.bartel@campmennoscah.org or 620-297-3290. We would be extra-happy to have some help with these tasks.

Scholarship funds are needed! First time campers are reaping the benefits of the first time camper scholarship, but there are limited funds for returning campers. Camp is an important part of faith development and building a community of faith. This is an easy and amazing way to support youth in their faith journey. Contact camp at 620-297-3290, write a check or donate online at https://tithe.ly/give_new/www/#/tithely/give-one-time/278483 with "scholarship fund" in the memo. (See camp address below.)

Plenty of room at the inn! Summer youth camps are not yet filled to overflowing, which would fill this sacred space called Camp Mennoscah with abounding joy. Full camps increase the energy and joy exponentially. The theme for the summer is "In the Wilderness." Through the new, strange and unknown of "wilderness," we will discover the sacred within each person and all creation and meet God there. Summer Youth Camps are for youth in grades 3-12 (Fall 2026). Register at <https://campmennoscah.campbrainregistration.com/>
